

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

³ Lt. Colonel Black served with the 42nd Highlanders in the Crimea from 14th June 1855, including the siege and fall of Sebastopol (Medal with Clasp, and Turkish Medal).

Facings White.—Agents, Messrs. Vesey W. Holt and Co.

1st Batt. embarked for Malta, 30 Sept. 1866.

2nd Batt. returned from India, 3 January 1873.—Embarked for the Cape of Good Hope, February 1878.

¹ General Taylor proceeded in 1811 to join the 22nd Dragoons in the East Indies, where he served until their return to Europe and disbandment, 25th Oct. 1820. He was in the field in 1815 and 16, and during the whole of the Maharrata war in 1817-19; the published official records show that his conduct was conspicuous in the Brigade Cavalry actions of Bucktowlie and of Nagpore, and in that of Ashta (20th Feb. 1818), the enemy having charged, overthrew one Regiment and cut down the General commanding, he, as Brigade Major, incurred the responsibility of countermanding the retreat, of ordering measures which terminated in the entire defeat of the Peishwar, the death of his Commander in Chief (Gokla), and he rescued the Rajah of Satarrah, the influential events that terminated the war. At the siege of Capaul-droog, he commanded a Battery at the storm (13th May 1810), he blew open the first gate with a galloper gun of the 22nd Dragoons, and heading the Forlorn Hope, he stormed in succession the five distinct circles of fortifications, every man and officer of his party being either killed or wounded, he received at the summit of that strong hill fort, at the moment of success in its capture, a shot through his lungs and body that killed the Grenadier behind him. The Governor General of India specially recommended him to favourable consideration for his services in India. In 1823-24 he was employed in the Cape Cavalry against the Caffres, and was recommended for promotion by the Governor and Commander in Chief. In Jun. 1824 he was relieved from a bullet which had been in his body since 1819. In Aug. 1826 his life was imperilled from a surgical operation consequent upon the passage of some cloth driven into him by a shot. In Nov. 1828 he was relieved from a piece of bone broken in his body by a shot. From April 1824 to Dec. 1827 he was a Colonel on the Staff at the Cape of Good Hope, where as a Brigadier at a "period of peculiar difficulty and imminently threatened war" he commanded a large force in Kaffraria with approbation and thanks publicly recorded. From April 1860 to April 1861 he was Commander of the Forces and Lieut. Governor of Jamaica and its Dependencies. In 1827 he was sent to England from Malta to establish discipline in a corps that had fired at and nearly killed their Adjutant, their insubordination sustained by a turbulent mob at a period of popular excitement. He took command and the Battalion shot him three times on the public parade, they fired into his windows and shot through the cheek a field aide who stood behind him. Without calling in other Troops he suppressed the mutiny, and alone he overawed the fury of the mob. The approbation of his Major General was submitted by his Lieut. General to the Horse Guards, and elicited through the Adjutant General the Sovereign's record that "the decided and necessary punishment to which he had resorted had effectually repressed the spirit that prevailed when he assumed the command."

² Major Charles Bromhead accompanied Sir Garnet Wolseley to the Gold Coast in September 1873 on special service, and served throughout the Ashanti war of 1873-74. Was sent as Special Commissioner first to the King of Eastern Assin and then to the King of Abura. Was Staff Officer to Colonel Festing at the action of the 27th October near Dunquah. Commanded the Abura at the repulse of the Ashanti Army at Abrakampa during the 5th and 6th November 1873. Commanded the reconnaissance in force of the 8th November. Afterwards served with Russell's Regiment at the capture and destruction of Adubiaasie, battle of Amonful, capture and destruction of Becqual, advanced guard engagement at Jarbinbah, skirmishes and ambuscade affairs between Adwabin and the river Ordah, battle of Ordahsu and capture of Comassie (mentioned in despatches, Brevet of Major, Medal with Clasp).

³ Major Much commanded detachments 2nd Battalion 24th Regt., Indian Naval Brigade, and Madras Sappers and Miners on an expedition to the Little Andaman Island on the 6th 7th and 8th May 1867, including an engagement with the savages on the 7th May. Was thanked by the Commander in Chief in India; commended by the Government of India; and services specially noted by order of H. R. H. the Field Marshal Commanding in Chief in a letter dated Horse Guards 27th December 1868, addressed to Sir William Mansfield (Brevet of Major).

Served in the Indian campaign and received the Victoria Cross for conspicuous bravery on the 30th March 1858 at Kohat, having headed a small party of men and attacked a body of armed fanatic rebels strongly posted in a loop-holed house with one narrow entrance; stormed the house and killed three rebels in single combat, having lost half of one hand by a stroke from a tulwar and received two bayonet wounds; was also present in the actions of Bussah and Pertalghur, at which latter he commanded two Companies of the 72nd, and was mentioned in despatches (Medal with Clasp).

1st Battalion embarked for India, 10 January 1871. 2nd Battalion returned from Nova Scotia, 10 January 1871.

² General Phillips served in the 43rd Light Infantry throughout the Kaffir war of 1811-53; commanded the Regiment at the Berea and in several skirmishes (mentioned in despatches, Brevet of Lt. Colonel, and Medal).

³ Lt. Colonel Warren was engaged in the operations at Taranaki in 1861 (Medal).

⁴ Lt. Colonel Byam served with the 65th Regiment in the New Zealand war in 1863-65 (Medal).

⁵ Lt. Colonel Wolsley served with the 84th Regiment during the latter part of the Indian mutiny, and was engaged in all the minor affairs in the Shahabad district under Sir John Douglas (Medal).

⁶ Lt. Colonel Gordon served throughout the Ashanti War of 1873-74. Landed at the Gold Coast on the 6th July 1873. Was made Commandant of Houssas and Adjutant of Armed Police. Organized scouting parties, patrols, and reconnaissances to discover the positions of the enemy. Made the first rough map of the neighbourhood. Selected the positions and constructed the important redoubts of Napoleon and Abbayo covering Cape Coast and Elmina respectively. Commenced the Cape Coast-Coomassie road, and had made it practicable for Artillery as far as Danguah by Sir Garnet Wolsley's arrival. Was now placed on the list of special service officers and commanded the guard of the working party at the head of the road till the middle of October, when he was placed in command of the Houssas. Commanded the Houssas at the repulse of the Ashanti Army at Abrakrampa during the 5th and 6th November, and at the reconnaissance in force of the 8th November. Commanded the Houssa Company of Russell's Regiment at the capture and destruction of Adubiassie, battle of Awoafu, capture and destruction of Bequah, the advanced guard engagement of Jarbinbah (slightly wounded), the skirmishes and ambuscade affairs between Adwabin and the river Ordah, the battle of Ordahsu and capture of Coomassie. Was promoted Captain in the 84th on the 10th December 1873 from Lieutenant and Adjutant 98th Regiment "in recognition of his valuable services with the Houssas and other forces under his orders whilst operating against the Ashantis" (several times mentioned in despatches, Brevet of Major, Medal with Clasp).
